

Non Faculty Appointment Information Sheet (Adjunct Research Fellow)

Adjunct Research Fellow

- For candidate who will perform a variety of research activities which include planning, organising and conducting research studies within the overall scope of a research project under the supervision of the Principal Investigator or his/her designate.
More information on the job description can be accessed on the Duke-NUS intranet [Using your NUSNET ID credentials and VIP Access (2FA)]

Title	Criteria
Adjunct Research Fellow	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PhD and/or post-graduate medical degree with at least 3 years' relevant research experience and training. • Proven track record in the form of high impact publications.

Non Faculty Appointment Workflow

