

SPEAKER

TWO-HOUR ONLINE

CONFERENCE

20th October 2020

by the International Out-Of-Hospital Cardiac Arrest Registry Group

Communicating registry output to improve cardiac arrest outcomes

Hideharu Tanaka (Japan) Chairman and Professor of Graduate School Emergency Medicine Systems, Kokushikan University

---

Prof Hideharu Tanaka, MD, PhD, is a Professor and Director of EMS system at the Graduate School of Kokushikan University and research Scientist, Disaster prevention at the EMS and rescue institute of Kokushikan University.

He is also Appointed President elect of All Japan Paramedic education Association, Committee member of National Resuscitation Council, PAD Council of Ministry of Health Welfare and Labour, Board member of Japan Emergency Medical Society.

His academic career includes a medical degree from the Kyorin University of Tokyo in 1983. He completed his Doctor degree in Kyorin University graduate school of medicine/ EMSP fellowships in Tokyo Emergency medical Services (TEMS) and Pre-hospital care in Tokyo Metropolitan Government. He obtained his Emergency physician board certification in emergency medicine in Kyorin university level 1 Trauma, Burn and Critical Care Medicine (CCM). Thereafter, he spent two year training as research fellow of Cook County Hospital, University of Illinois. He was also appointed guest professor of University of Bergen, Norway. He spent more than 20years as staff surgeon for Trauma and Burn, and associate professor for CCM.

Prof Tanaka has been actively involved in research, EMS education and medical direction of Tokyo EMS services for more than 20 years. His research studies focus predominantly on pre-hospital resuscitation, PAD, CPR in school program. He has published several research papers on emergency cardiac care, trauma and burns. He has also published more than 40 papers in international and peer-reviewed journals.