

Palliative Care Course for Community Nurses (Advanced)

Date & Time: 3 - 7 August 2020 / 8am - 12.30pm

Course Fee: $100/pax (before GST)

In collaboration with Assisi Hospice, the Lien Centre for Palliative Care has designed an advanced level certificate online course aimed at nurses whose main focus is the delivery of palliative care in the community.

Topics:

- Palliative Care in the 21st century
- History taking
- Interpretation of Physical Signs
- Pain and Symptom assessment and management
- Opioid use
- Ascites, intestinal obstruction and palliative care emergencies
- Palliative Care in Non-cancers
- Psychosocial issues in palliative care
- Bereavement
- 101 of healthcare funding in Singapore
- Communication skills

Accreditation:

This course is accredited by the Singapore Nursing Board with a maximum of 10 CPE points for full attendance.

Format:

- 1) Online learning pre-sessions (to prepare for lessons)
- 2) Interactive webinars and online classrooms

Eligibility:

- Practising home hospice nurses (priority for those with <1 year experience);
- OR Nurses in community who have completed PCCCN (Basic)

Registration:

<https://nus.edu/3dV8xhE>
Registration closes on 13 July.
Successful registrants will be notified via email.

Faculty

Dr Alethea Yee

Director of Education,
Lien Centre for Palliative Care
Clinical Director, Assisi Hospice
Sr Consultant, National Cancer Centre

Dr Alakananda Gudi

Consultant Psychiatrist,
Singapore General Hospital

Dr Peh Tan Ying

Clinical Faculty,
Lien Centre for Palliative Care
Head (Medical), Assisi Hospice
Consultant, National Cancer Centre

Mr Andy Sim

Principal Medical Social Worker,
Singapore General Hospital

Ms Angela Tan

Senior Medical Social Worker,
Assisi Hospice

LIEN centre
for Palliative Care

