

CoRE Symposium
Regional Approaches to the Development and Use of Real-World Data and Evidence
23 September 2019
Amphitheatre, Level 2
Duke-NUS Medical School

Programme

3.00pm	Topic	Speaker/ Organisation
3.00pm	Registration
3.30pm	Welcome	Centre of Regulatory Excellence Duke-NUS Medical School
3.35pm	Utilising Real-World Data and Evidence to Improve Healthcare: Emerging Lessons from International Efforts	Professor Mark McClellan            Professor of Business            Medicine and Policy Director            Duke-Margolis Center for Health Policy            Duke University Former Administrator            Centers for Medicare &amp; Medicaid Services            Former Commissioner            U.S. Food and Drug Administration
3.55pm	Panel Discussion	Moderator  Associate Professor Kelvin Bryan Tan            Director            Policy, Research and Evaluation Division            Ministry of Health Adjunct Associate Professor            Centre of Regulatory Excellence            Duke-NUS Medical School Expert Panel Associate Professor James Yip            Group Chief Medical Information            Officer            National University Health System Chief Data Advisor            Ministry of Health            Singapore Ms Sally Soh            Regulatory Consultant            Vigilance and Compliance Branch            Health Products Regulation Group            Health Sciences Authority            Singapore Mr Bart Barefoot            Director            Value Evidence &amp;            Outcomes and Real-World            Evidence Policy, Advocacy,            and External Collaboration            GlaxoSmithKline
5.00pm	End	